Devotion:

This week is Holy Week. A week in which we prepare for the death and Resurrection of Jesus. This hymn is a great way to prepare for Easter. This week try and read it each day to find something new that is meaningful in the hymn. In addition here are some great readings that inspired the hymn:

Matthew 21:15

Mark 11:1-11

Psalm 118:25-26

Prayer: Lord Jesus I run to you with open arms and an open heart as we reflect this week on your suffering, death, and Resurrection. You overcame death for me a sinner. I thank you Lord for all you did for me. I praise you this week as you died for all people knowing we could never repay such a perfect sacrifice. Amen.
