*Leading People Into a Living
Relationship With Jesus Christ.*

A Letter From The Pastor

BY PASTOR BURMEISTER

Fellow Redeemed,

As the calendar turns to a new year, people around the world engage in the tradition of making resolutions. These resolutions often revolve around personal growth, health, and happiness. However, for those who have faith in Jesus Christ, the connection between their belief and their New Year's resolution is a little bit different. Faith in Jesus can inspire and transform our resolutions, leading to a life of purpose, hope, and eternal significance.

Seeking God's Guidance:

One of the fundamental aspects of faith in Jesus is the belief that God is actively involved in our lives. When making New Year's resolutions, individuals with faith in Jesus often seek God's guidance through prayer and reflection. They recognize that their desires and goals should align with God's will, leading to resolutions that are not only beneficial for themselves but also for others. The second of the greatest commands is to love others, as you love yourself.

Embracing Transformation:

Faith in Jesus is centered around the reality of transformation. Christians believe that through their relationship with Jesus, they are continually being transformed into better versions of themselves, always for God's Glory. This understanding influences New Year's resolutions, as we strive to align our goals with the values and teachings of Jesus. Resolutions may include acts of kindness, forgiveness, and love towards others, reflecting the transformative power of faith. In short, we are resolving to follow Jesus, just as He has called us to do.

Focusing on Spiritual Growth:

While physical and mental well-being are important, individuals with faith in Jesus understand the significance of nurturing their spiritual growth. New Year's resolutions for believers often involve deepening their relationship with God through regular prayer, Bible study, and participation in worship. They recognize that spiritual growth impacts all areas of life and seek to prioritize it in their resolutions. This is nothing less than God working in the Christian, by the power of God, the Holy Spirit.

Finding Hope and Purpose:

Faith in Jesus provides believers with a sense of hope and purpose that extends beyond earthly achievements. As they make their New Year's resolutions, they are motivated by the eternal impact their actions can have. Resolutions may include sharing their faith with others, volunteering, or engaging in acts of kindness. They understand that their actions can bring hope and healing to a broken world, aligning their resolutions with their faith's core principles, namely, Grace alone, through Faith alone, by God's Word alone.

Embracing Grace and Forgiveness:

A crucial aspect of faith in Jesus is the trust in God's grace and forgiveness. Christians understand that they are imperfect and will stumble along their journey. When making resolutions, they acknowledge their shortcomings and embrace the opportunity for growth and change. This mindset allows them to approach their resolutions with grace, knowing that even as they fail, they can find forgiveness and the strength to start anew, through God, who makes all things new.

For those who have faith in Jesus, New Year's resolutions take on a deeper meaning. We become a reflection of the desire that God has for our lives, combined with the teachings of Jesus, seeking personal transformation and eternal impact. By focusing on God's guidance, embracing transformation, nurturing spiritual growth, finding hope and purpose, and embracing grace and forgiveness, we embark on a journey of "self-improvement" that goes beyond the confines of a new year. Self-improvement for us means improving our service and love for others. May this year be one where faith in Jesus inspires resolutions that bring about lasting change and make a positive difference in the lives of others. Amen!

STUDENT LOAN REPAYMENT FUND

Pursuing a career in service to the Lord through the church is a fulfilling opportunity, but it is not an inexpensive choice. Those who pursue professional church work many times incur educational debt, just like anyone else may do. Repayment of educational debt is often made more difficult by the more modest salaries of church workers, compared to other professions. In order to encourage and retain our professional church workers here at Christ the Redeemer, several years ago the congregation established a fund to assist our Pastors, DCEs and other synodically-trained church workers in repaying their student loans. This fund relies on the donations of our members here at CTR. The fund is currently in need of additional funds. Please prayerfully consider a designated donation to this cause. You may place your gift in the weekly offering with a designation of "Student Loan Fund" or you may give your gift directly to one of the Elders, and we will ensure that it is deposited in the correct fund.

Thank you for your past generosity and for ongoing support.

LATEST NEWS

Hull Family Vicarage Newsletter

Greetings from Okeechobee, Florida!

The weather here is wonderful. Some mornings dip into the 50's but by late afternoon we are back up the 70's. The fact that we do not have a visual changing of the seasons makes it difficult to remember where we are on the calendar. Advent kind of snuck up on me. It feels more like the 4th of July than the 4th of December.

Attendance at Peace Lutheran continues to climb. I would like to think that at least some of the people are coming out of their COVID hibernation to return to church. It is hard for me to tell since more and more of the attendees are refugees from "up north". I try to keep straight who is a winter visitor and who is here year-round. I am sure that after this year I will be more familiar.

Deb and I would like to thank you for your continued support. Vicarage is difficult financially, but God has blessed us with abundant help through you all. Rent is high in Florida. The cost of food is up, as it seems is everything else. But again, we have been blessed.

We have passed the mid- point of vicarage. Time is flying by. I am getting a better understanding of the flow of the life of a Pastor and how to manage my time and energy so that I can serve well. Sometimes it is difficult to get the rest that I need not because there is so much to do, but because there is so much to learn. I find myself getting lost in Bible study. Time gets away from me. What a time to be in Pastoral Ministry. We have so many tools and so much research at our fingertips that it can become all consuming. At that point I must remind myself that real ministry is to the people, and I must get out of my office and meet some people.

As we head into Advent, I again want to thank you for all your support both financially and in prayer. Because of you I have the privilege of delivering the real gift of Christmas, the good news of the birth of the Messiah, Jesus, son of God and son of Man.

May you have a blessed Advent and Christmas!

In Christ,
Deon and Debra Hull

CHOIR & HANDBELLS FOR YOUTH & ADULTS

BY JACOB DREGLER

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year:
"Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown."
And he replied:
"Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God.
That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."
So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night.
And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.

Thus reads the preamble to the poem "God Knows," written in 1908 by British poet, missionary, and academic Minnie Louise Haskins (1875-1957). The preamble gained widespread public attention in 1939 when King George VI of England quoted a portion of it in his annual Christmas radio broadcast. Lovely though the language of the well-known preamble is, the second stanza, too, is well worth reading and considering as we enter into a new year.

God knows. His will is best. The stretch of years
Which wind ahead, so dim to our imperfect vision,
Are clear to God. Our fears are premature; In Him,
All time hath full provision.

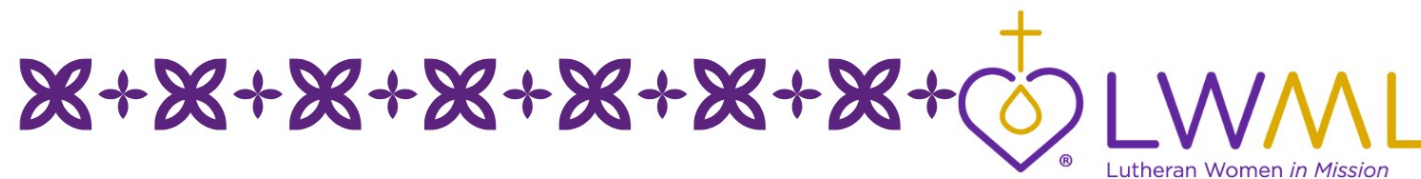

The sentiments expressed in this poem bring to mind the words of a chorale with deep roots in the Lutheran tradition, "If Thou But Trust in God to Guide Thee." This hymn was written by German poet Georg Neumark (1621-1681) amidst the destruction and chaos of the Thirty Years' War. Through the words of Neumark's hymn, we are reminded of the comfort and hope that are ours, whatever the circumstances of our lives, through the undeserved, unchanging love of God. While we cannot know what the future holds, we live in the sure and certain hope that the One who created the universe holds our past, our present, and our future in His hands.

If thou but trust in God to guide thee
And hope in Him through all thy ways,
He'll give thee strength, whate'er betide thee,
And bear thee through the evil days.
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
Builds on the rock that naught can move.
("If Thou But Trust in God to Guide Thee" LSB 750)

In closing, below is a well-known prayer of the Church that is often associated with the service of Evening Prayer, for which it serves as a concluding prayer:

Lord God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untraveled, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the coming weeks, as we begin a new year, the Sanctuary Choir will sing Carl Schalk's (1929-2021) beautiful setting of this prayer. In reading, hearing, and praying these words, may you be encouraged and strengthened for the journey. On that journey, remember your identity as a child of God: you are loved, called, redeemed, sanctified, and never, ever alone.

This month in Sunday School, for PreK- 5th grade, we will learn how Jesus showed His love to and cared for people while He lived on earth. Our summary verse is:

“Dear children, let’s not merely say that we love each other, let us show the truth by our actions.”
1 John 3:18

While he showed His love to us, He showed us how we can love other people in our actions. As a family, talk about what it looks like to love others. Also, think of a way you can show someone love in a tangible way this month.
