Leading People Into a Living Relationship With Jesus Christ.

BY PASTOR BURMEISTER

Fellow Redeemed,

As we approach Reformation Day, we are reminded of the monumental events that shaped our Christian faith over five centuries ago. The Protestant Reformation, ignited by Martin Luther's courageous stand against the prevailing practices of the Church, was not merely a historical event but a divine movement that restored the purity of the Gospel message. It brought the light of God's Word back to the forefront, reminding us that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone.

The Heart of the Reformation

The Reformation was more than just a theological dispute; it was a call to return to the core truths of Scripture. Luther's 95 Theses challenged the Church to examine its teachings and practices, holding them against the authority of the Bible. He called for a return to the simplicity and purity of the Gospel, free from the corruption and abuses that had crept into the Church over the centuries.

But Luther's message was not only for the institution of the Church; it was also for individuals. He emphasized that faith is personal—a direct relationship between the believer and God. This principle of sola fide (faith alone) challenged Christians to examine their own lives, to reform their personal faith, and to ensure that it was rooted in the Word of God.

The Need for Personal Reformation

Just as the Church of Luther's time needed reformation, so too do we today need to examine our hearts...

Strengthening the saved, saving the lost.

and lives. The Reformation calls each of us to a personal transformation—a reformation of our own faith and daily living.

In the hustle and bustle of modern life, it's easy to lose sight of our spiritual priorities. We can become complacent, allowing the pressures of work, family, society, and yes, social media to overshadow our commitment to Christ. But the message of the Reformation compels us to pause, reflect, and ask ourselves:

- Is my faith truly centered on Christ alone?
- Am I allowing the Word of God to shape my beliefs and actions?
- Am I living out the grace and love of God in my relationships with others?

The Reformation reminds us that our walk with Christ is a daily journey of renewal. It calls us to continually reform our lives, bringing them into greater alignment with God's will. This involves a constant return to Scripture, a renewed commitment to prayer, and an absolute reliance on the Holy Spirit to guide and transform us.

Embracing the Spirit of Reformation

As we commemorate the Protestant Reformation this year, let us embrace its spirit not just as a historical event, but as a living challenge to our hearts. Just as Luther stood firm in his faith against the pressures of his time, we too are called to stand firm in our faith today, resisting the secular currents that seek to pull us away from our Savior.

Let this season be a time of personal reformation, where we recommit ourselves to the truths of the Gospel, where we seek to live out our faith with renewed passion and purpose. May we be ever vigilant in guarding our hearts, ensuring that they are wholly devoted to Christ, and may we, like Luther, find our courage in the Lord, standing boldly in the truth of His Word.

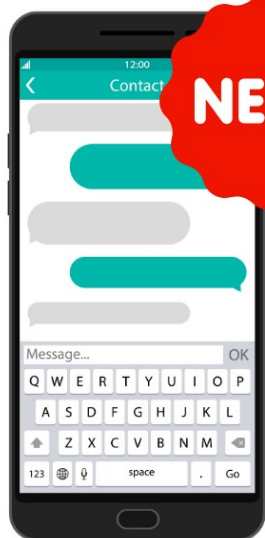

SEWING LOVE

What brings warmth and shelter to families by becoming a bed, room divider, backpack, and at times even a home??? HOW CAN YOU HELP?? We need help in purchasing the fabric to make the quilt tops. Each quilt costs approximately $25 to make. Donations marked "LWML quilts" can be dropped in the mite box or put in the offering plate.

Prayers for our quilt program are needed plus prayers for the recipients of our quilts. These quilts are sent all over the United States, as well as the world!

JOIN A Home Team

The Backbone of Eden Village

Relationship and community are a key part of the solution to homelessness. We believe that we should know the name and story of the person we're trying to help. Each resident of Eden Village of Tulsa has a supportive Home Team consistent of 4-6 people from the surrounding Tulsa, OK area that will promise to meet monthly and 'do life' with that resident. There is a short educational program required to clearly explain the process, which includes no material gifts, rather just a supportive relationship. Basically, we're asking for a dedicated, consistent group to become the family our new neighbors have not had.

Make a Lasting Impact

What is a Home Team?

Home teams are a long-term volunteer opportunity that allow you to make a personal connection with an Eden Village resident.

How often do they meet?

Each resident is assigned a home team upon move in that will meet once a month during their first year living at Eden Village.

Why are Home Teams important?

Transitioning from life on the streets to life in a home is not easy. The home team offers support and encouragement during this time.

If you are interested please let Suzanne Beauchamp know smbeauchamp02@gmail.com

Let's support "our" little home by being a CTR Home Team!

MUSIC MINISTRY

CHOIR & HANDBELLS FOR YOUTH & ADULTS

BY JACOB DRENGLER

In October 2017, Lutheran congregations around the world celebrated the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. This year, we celebrate another important milestone: the 500th anniversary of the publication of the first Lutheran hymnals. For Martin Luther (1483-1546), music was no mere aural accessory to adorn or beautify the liturgy of the Church. Rather, music, which Luther viewed as a creation and gift of God for His people to use in praise and adoration, was indispensable in Christian worship.

In the Lutheran tradition, music, when joined to the Word of God, serves as a means for God's people to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Nowhere is this seen more clearly than in the singing of congregational hymns. In joining our voices in songs of praise and proclamation, we participate in and become part of what Luther called viva vox evangelii, that is, the "living voice of the Gospel."

Hymnody has remained vital to Lutheran worship for over five centuries. From the earliest days of the Reformation, Luther was committed to the task of providing a body of vernacular hymnody suitable for congregational singing. To that end, he actively sought the assistance of gifted poets and composers, whom he considered to be more well-equipped for the task than himself, encouraging them to write hymns for the Church. Luther's own hymnic contributions and his encouragement of the poetic and musical efforts of others led to the publication of the first Lutheran hymnals in 1524.

The first Lutheran hymnal, Etlich Cristlich lider ("Some Christian Songs"), was published in Nürnberg. Born out of a collaboration between Luther and Paul Speratus (1484-1551), this hymnal contained just eight hymns. Three of those hymns, Luther's "Dear Christians, One and All, Rejoice" (LSB 556) and "From Depths of Woe I Cry to Thee" (LSB 607), and Speratus's "Salvation Unto Us Has Come" (LSB 555), are found in Lutheran Service Book, the present hymnal of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Shortly after the publication of Etlich Cristlich lider, the second Lutheran hymnal, the Erfrurt Enchiridion, was published. The Enchiridion, meaning handbook, was published in Erfurt by two competing printers, Johannes Loersfeld and Matthes Maler. In addition to hymns of Luther and Speratus, including those that were published in Etlich Cristlich lider, the Enchiridion contains hymns by Elisabeth Cruciger (c. 1500-1535), Justus Jonas (1494-1555), and Erhard Hegenwald (first half of the 16th century). Fourteen of the twenty-six hymns found in the Enchiridion are included in Lutheran Service Book.

The first Wittenberg hymnal, Eyn Geystliche gesangk Buchleyn ("A Spiritual Songbook"), was compiled and edited by the composer and poet Johann Walter (1496-1570). This hymnal, which opens with a preface written by Martin Luther, is the first German hymnal to include hymns harmonized for choral singing, marking the beginning of Lutheran choral music. The first edition of Eyn geystlich Gesangk Buchleyn contains thirty-two German hymns in polyphonic settings for three to five voice parts. In addition, it includes several sacred songs in Latin. In contrast to the modern hymnic practice of placing the hymn tune in the soprano, Walter places the melody in the tenor voice. Eighteen of the hymns contained in Walter's hymnal are found in Lutheran Service Book.

As Lutheran Christians, we have indeed inherited a rich treasury of hymnody. Today, just as much as 500 years ago, congregational song is a living, vital component of worship through which Jesus Christ, crucified, risen, and ascended, is proclaimed as Lord. In many ways, our faith is shaped, formed, and nurtured by the songs that we sing. Through the Church's song, we engage in the entire story of salvation in all its richness and complexity. May the songs we sing always point to the One to whom they are addressed, and may we never cease to "proclaim the wonders God has done" (LSB 556:1). Alleluia! Amen.

PreK- 5th Grade Elementary Students Sundays following Opening

This Fall in Sunday School, for PreK- 5th grade, we are kicking off a new series called Epic Teachings of the Bible. Each unit explores the enduring lessons of the Old and New Testaments.

The month we will wrap up our discussions about the Fruits of the Spirit. Our next unit will be on the Lord's Prayer. Instead of a theme verse, memorize the Lord's Prayer with your children if they don't already know it.

Say it each night before they go to bed. Practice saying at family meals together. Talk about the different petitions in the prayer. Who are we talking to? What are we asking? This is just one way we can talk to God, but it is the way that Jesus taught us!

SUNDAY SCHOOL STORE DONATIONS

If you are cleaning out your closets and toy boxes, consider donating any new or gently used toys to our Sunday School Store. The kids love shopping with tickets they earn for attendance, bringing their Bibles and bringing friends.
