CORNERSTONE

MARCH 2025

Leading People Into a Living Relationship With Jesus Christ.

BY PASTOR BURMEISTER

Fellow Redeemed,

As we enter the sacred season of Lent, Ash Wednesday stands as a solemn reminder of our mortality and our dependence on God's grace. The words spoken as ashes are placed on our foreheads "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return" direct our hearts to a truth we often prefer to avoid: our earthly lives are fleeting. We are reminded that our time in this world is temporary and that we must use it wisely in faith, repentance, and love.

Yet, while Ash Wednesday calls us to acknowledge our frailty, it does not leave us without hope. The season of Lent is not merely about sorrow or mourning but about renewal and transformation. God does not desire the death of sinners but rather that we turn from our ways and live (Ezekiel 18:23). The ashes we receive are not only a sign of our mortality but also an invitation to repentance and spiritual growth.

Lent is a sacred opportunity to use our time wisely by deepening our faith, embracing repentance, and extending love to others. We can strengthen our faith through daily prayer, Scripture reading, and worship, allowing God's Word to guide our hearts and minds. Repentance calls us to examine our lives honestly, confess our sins, and seek God's grace to turn away from what separates us from Him. Through acts of love, whether by serving those in need, offering forgiveness, or practicing kindness, we reflect Christ's mercy in the world. By dedicating our time to these spiritual disciplines, we prepare our hearts for the joy of Easter, growing closer to God and living out His call to holiness.

The Lenten journey ahead calls us to deeper prayer, self-examination, and acts of mercy. Whether or not one chooses to receive the imposition of ashes, the greater focus of this day remains the same: humbling ourselves before God and trusting in His grace. As we walk through these forty days, let us embrace the opportunity to draw nearer to Christ, remembering that His mercy sustains us, and His love leads us to new life.

May this season of Lent be a time of reflection, renewal, and closer communion with our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen!

Strengthening the saved, saving the lost.

MUSIC MINISTRY

CHOIR & HANDBELLS FOR YOUTH & ADULTS

BY JACOB DREGLER

The word alleluia, derived from the Hebrew word halleluyah, means “Praise the Lord.” During the penitential season of Lent, the Church has traditionally refrained from singing or speaking alleluia within the context of the liturgy. On Transfiguration Sunday, the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, the Church has long observed the practice of saying “farewell” to alleluia, often through a brief ceremony or the singing of a hymn that prominently features the word alleluia. Alleluia is then joyously restored when Christians are gathered to celebrate the Feast of the Resurrection at Easter.

The custom of omitting alleluia during Lent goes back to at least the fifth century, while the practice of more formally bidding it farewell originated later in the Middle Ages. In his text Mediaeval Hymns and Sequences, the eminent English hymnwriter John Mason Neale (1818-1866) quotes at length from an early version of the farewell to alleluia found in the Mozarabic Rite, one of the earliest liturgical rites of the western Church:

Alleluia in heaven and in earth; it is perpetuated in heaven, it is sung in earth. There it resounds everlastingly; here sweetly. There happily; here concordantly. There ineffably; here earnestly. There without syllables; here in musical numbers. There from the angels; here from the people. Which, at the birth of Christ the Lord, not only in heaven, but the earth, did the angels sing; while they proclaimed, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will.

Thou shalt go, O Alleluia, Thou shalt have a prosperous journey, O Alleluia. And again with joy thou shalt return to us, O Alleluia. For in their hands they shall bear thee up; lest thou hurt thy foot against a stone. And again with joy thou shalt return to us, O Alleluia.

The hymn with which we at CTR will bid farewell to alleluia this year is “Alleluia, Song of Gladness”(LSB 417). It is a translation of an ancient Latin hymn likely composed between the years 800 to 1100. The second stanza compares the season of Lent, devoid of alleluia, to the exile of the Israelites during the Babylonian captivity. While this hymn had fallen out of common use by the time of the Reformation, it was rediscovered and translated by John Chandler (1806-1876) during the nineteenth century, later becoming widely used across a variety of Christian traditions as a farewell to alleluia in anticipation of the season of Lent. The translation found in Lutheran Service Book is a revision of a later translation by John Mason Neale.

In singing "Alleluia, Song of Gladness," we are reminded that on this side of eternity things are not yet as they should be. "Alleluia cannot always be our song while here below," we sing. As we journey through this Lenten season, it is perhaps not such a bad thing to remember that we live in a fallen and broken world that desperately longs to be made whole. Yet this hymn also reminds us that we are Easter people even in the midst of Lenten wilderness: "Therefore in our hymns we pray Thee, grant us, blessed Trinity, at the last to keep Thine Easter with Thy faithful saints on high." Although we refrain from alleluia for a time, we wait in joyful anticipation of the final Resurrection dawn, when we will join in the song of the saints at the marriage feast of the Lamb in His kingdom which has no end. Here, we join in that song for only a little while; there, we will join in that song eternally.

As the season of Lent begins, we are reminded that we are dust and that we shall return to dust. While we know this to be true, we face this knowledge with the sure and certain confidence born of the marvelous hope that is ours through the redemptive death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

We go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. (The Book of Common Prayer, p. 483)

Thanks be to God!

PreK- 5th Grade Elementary Students

Sundays following Opening

This month, kids in PreK-5th grade will learn about the Armor of God. The kids will learn about the different pieces of God's Armor that He protects us with: the belt of truth, the breastplate of righteousness, shoes with readiness for the Gospel of Peace, the shield of faith, helmet of salvation and sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. All of the pieces of the armor are gifts that God gives us graciously to protect us in the faith that He has given us through Jesus. We can put these on (be reminded of these) daily to be able to stand firm when we are bombarded by the sin in and around us. Our memory verse for this unit is:

"Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm." Ephesians 6:13

As a family you can refer to the pieces of armor when faced with trials at school and work and talk about how you rely on God and His Word to guide and protect you. Pray over your family daily and give thanks for the armor that God gives us to always keep us in His care.

YOUTH MINISTRY FUNDRAISER
EASTER SUNDAY, APRIL 20, 2025

9:00-10:30 AM
IN FELLOWSHIP
HALL WEST

Youth and Parents, Our big youth fundraiser is upon us: The Annual Easter Breakfast at 9AM on Easter morning!

The money that goes into this dedicated account helps to pay the costs for Youth Trips and special events such as the upcoming 2025 National Youth Gathering! It is through generous congregational donations that we can keep costs for these events down for families and cover the price of chaperones on these trips.

This year our menu for the Easter breakfast will be 2 different breakfast casseroles, fruit and pancakes.

We will all meet together Friday, April 18 before the Good Friday worship service (service starts at 6:30 PM) to:

1) Set up the Fellowship Hall (table cloths, utensils on tables etc)

2) Prep the fruit and casseroles

So, what we need from you is:

A commitment to be here on Friday at 5:30 PM.

The supplies for the casseroles will be here (including disposable pans!) as well as the fruit.

We will need hands, preferably youth hands as well as adult, to assist in assembling casseroles and setting up the tables and paper products.

Then we will need families to commit to taking home casseroles to bake. You can take with you Friday or pick up from the church fridge on Saturday. Please bring them on Sunday morning, hot. We will put them in the warmer to keep ready for the breakfast.

And we will need servers and pancake makers for Sunday morning. Shifts will be 8:00-9:15 AM- Prebreakfast shift, includes pre-making pancakes and setting up or 9:00-10:30 AM- Service and clean up of the kitchen and Fellowship Hall

Please sign up on Church Center if you can come on Good Friday to help and if you can be here Easter Sunday to assist.

Completing a second Neighborhood

February 15, 2025

Work is being done on the completion of the second neighborhood and everyone is very excited. There have been requests for cleaning teams and more requestions will be on the way!

So be on the lookout and hope to see you there. These are single event opportunities so even if you can't commit to an ongoing activity this is a good way to have a positive impact.

Home Team is Your Team

Relationships are at the heart of what we do, so consider volunteering at Eden Village. Home Teams are needed now, as every resident needs a small group of dedicated volunteers to befriend them. It's not hard, they just need your time and friendship to help them navigate their new lives.

CTR Home Team. We've established a Home Team for the resident who is living in the house CTR donated! We are delighted to be able to support this person as they move through this experience and back into society. The Team has had several planning meetings as well as a resident meet and greet. Please consider joining us. This ministry is very satisfying and while we are looking for a year commitment it isn't heavy on the time commitment. As they say many hands make light the work☺ Watch for details about our next meeting, won't you join us?
